

Benedicte GRALL

Lecturer

Research themes

role of technology in organizations and society sociology of management tools control practices

Professional career of Bénédicte Grall

Since September 2015, Bénédicte Grall has been a lecturer at Cnam Paris in the accounting-control-audit team. She graduated from Toulouse Business School (TBS) in 1992, after a professional experience, she prepared a PhD in management sciences at HEC Paris and defended her thesis in 2014. Between 2009 and 2015, she taught management accounting and management control, notably at HEC Paris, ESCP Europe and Télécom école de management. Previously, she was a sales manager and CRM (Customer Relationship Management) project manager at La Poste Group.

+ CV Bénédicte Grall

Publications et travaux scientifiques

Données extraites du portail HAL

Coordonnées

benedicte.grall@lecnam.net