

Katsyarina KANANOVICH

Research themes

Management in healthcare
Territorial diagnosis and territorial management
International healthcare systems

Professional career of Katsiaryna Kananovich

Katsiaryna KANANOVICH (Katerina KONONOVICH) graduated from HESAM University/ Conservatoire national des arts et métiers and defended her dissertation in management at Conservatoire national des arts et métiers University in 2021. She joined Le Cnam in 2014 as PhD student and lecturer. She has previously fulfilled a postdoctoral fellowship in University of Lorraine and studied the effects of the Covid-19 pandemic on the rights of the elderly in 18 countries. She is a member of Lirsa and currently works on management of health and medico-social establishments, diagnosis and territorial management, stakeholders' interactions within territories, as well as comparative analysis of the functioning of international healthcare systems. She is also a researcher in G rontop le Pays de la Loire and works as an invited researcher for French National Authority for Health (HAS) and l'Association interentreprise de sant  au travail (AIST19).

+ CV Katsiaryna Kananovich

+ Research Gate

Publications et travaux scientifiques

Donn es extraites du portail HAL

Coordonn es

katsiaryna.kananovich@lecnam.net

