

Laurent CAPPELLETTI

Professor of Cnam

Research themes

converting hidden costs into performance epistemology, theory and practice of intervention research performance management in the public sector and the professions management of normative inflation

Professional career of Laurent Cappelletti

Cappelletti L Laurent Cappelletti, a graduate of EDHEC Business School and holder of a doctorate in management science, was first a financial auditor at KPMG and then a lecturer at the IAE in Lyon. Since 2011, he has been a professor at the CNAM in the accounting and management control chair, program director at ISEOR and coordinator of the international research network Tétranormalisation. His work focuses mainly on research-intervention in economics and management, the socio-economic development of human potential, the measurement of hidden labor costs and the sustainable reindustrialization of territories (Harzing impact factors: 1149 citations, H index: 17, I10 index: 27). They have received four best paper awards from the Academy of Management - Management Consulting Division (2005, 2009, 2021, 2022). He is also co-editor of the FNEGE-rated journals RSDG and ACCRA.

+ CV Laurent Cappelletti

Publications et travaux scientifiques

Données extraites du portail HAL

Coordonnées

laurent.cappelletti@lecnam.net

