

Madina RIVAL

University Professor

Research themes

Corporate political activities
Lobbying
Public management
Public innovation
Public policies
Management
Organization theory
Strategy.

Professional career of Madina Rival

Madina Rival graduated Sciences Po Paris, was a student of the “Ecole Normale”, holds an “aggregation” in economics and management and a management science PHD from La Sorbonne University. Today, she is a University Professor at the National Conservatory for Arts and Crafts (Conservatoire National des Arts et Métiers, Cnam University). Specialized in management and public innovation, she is in charge of a school diploma and a master’s degree (2nd year) on the subject. Researcher in management sciences, she also is in charge of the interdisciplinary research laboratory in action sciences (Lirsa, 210 researchers).

Author of numerous research articles internationally, she works on lobbying, the making of public politics, the different aspects of management and public innovation. Madina Rival is currently supervising five doctoral theses on these subjects.

+ CV Madina Rival

Publications et travaux scientifiques

Données extraites du portail HAL

Coordonnées

madina.rival@lecnam.net

<https://lirsa-en.cnam.fr/madina-rival--1374630.kjsp?RH=1568816156356>