

Malo MOFAKHAMI

Research themes

- Economics of Innovation
- Labor Economics
- Job Quality and Working Conditions
- Industrial Economics
- Applied economics
- Microeconometrics

Professional career of Malo Mofakhami

Malo Mofakhami graduated with a PhD in economics from Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne University. He joined Le Cnam in 2019 as a post-doctoral fellow at the Centre d'étude de l'emploi et du travail (CEET). He was previously a lecturer at Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne University. He is a member of Lirsa and currently works on the technology and employment nexus, particularly on the effects of new technology and innovation on working conditions in the European area. He also is a member of European research projects (Beyond) and participates in international institutions projects.

+ CV Malo Mofakhami

Other information :

- Research gates
- Academia
- Page personnel \(CNAM\)

Publications et travaux scientifiques

Données extraites du portail HAL

Coordonnées

malo.mofakhami@lecnam.net

